February, 23, 2016 — St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival seeks 20 volunteer extras for its 2016 MainStage production of Julius Caesar!

Hear ye, hear ye! The St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival is looking for male volunteer extras to play Roman Soldiers and Senators! Thanks to a special one-time only arrangement with the Canadian Actors Equity Association, the Festival is able to invite 20 volunteers to join its cast of 12 professional actors in this summer's Julius Caesar, directed by Festival Artistic Director Rona Waddington.

Specifically, the Festival is seeking males, 16 years of age and older, with an interest in performing, the ability to work outdoors...and lots of courage and enthusiasm! No experience is necessary, though the ability to commit to rehearsal and performance dates is essential.

Anyone interested in participating or receiving further information, should contact Rona at ad@stlawrenceshakespeare.ca
